

Curriculum vitae and Professional profile of prof. Ing. Jaroslav Halvonik, PhD.

- Born in 1964 in Humenne, East Slovakia;
- Education: Master's degree at Slovak University Technical in Bratislava, Faculty of Civil Engineering, 1983-88;
- 1989–93 PhD Study at SUT, thesis: Bearing Capacity of Bridges Prestressed by Unbonded Tendons;
- 2000 – 2001, 6 months research work at University of Illinois at Chicago
- 2001 Associate professor at SUT, Department of Concrete Structures and Bridges with habilitation work: Stress state analysis of Kishwaukee bridge, Illinois, USA;
- 2010 Professor at SUT, Faculty of Civil Engineering, at Department of Concrete Structures and Bridges;
- Chairman of mirror technical committee Design of Concrete Structures at Slovak Office of Standards, Metrology and Testing;
- Representative of Slovak republic at CEN/TC250 Structural Eurocodes;
- Member of CEN/TC250/SC2/WG1/TG4 Shear, Torsion and Punching
- Member of Slovak Chamber of Civil Engineers
- Consulting Engineer, Betoning & Partners, Ltd.